

EURO-TRADE S.P.A.

CODE OF ETHICS

APPROVED BY THE SOLE ADMINISTRATOR OF EURO-TRADE S.P.A. ON JUNE 15, 2017

THE CODE OF ETHICS OF EURO-TRADE S.P.A.

This Code expresses the commitments and ethical responsibilities in the conduct of business and corporate activities, which are undertaken by Euro-Trade S.p.A. (hereinafter “Euro-Trade” or the “Company”), and therefore by its directors, employees and partners of any kind.

It is a Company's belief that ethics in the conduct of business is a prerequisite for its success, a means of promoting its image and represents a key asset for the Company itself. To this end, Euro-Trade has decided to adopt this Code of Ethics (hereinafter the “Code”) which, in line with the principles of fairness, loyalty and honesty, already shared by the Company, is designed to regulate through rules of conduct, the activities of the Company.

This Code shall be deemed binding on the Company and all of its employees and associates. Euro-Trade also requires that all major stakeholders of the Company (by which are meant the investee companies, suppliers, employees and trade unions, shareholders, customers,) shall maintain a conduct in line with the general principles of the Code, without prejudice to the observance of religious, cultural social beliefs, with respect to which the Company makes no distinction.

This Code also constitutes an integral part of the Organization, Management and Control system put in place by the Company pursuant to the Legislative Decree of 8 June 2001, n. 231, concerning “the administrative liability of legal persons, companies and associations without legal personality, in accordance with Article 11 of the Law of 29 September 2000 n. 300”.

This Code consists of:

- ✓ the general principles governing the relations with the Company’s stakeholders, which define the values of Euro-Trade;
- ✓ the rules of conduct for each class of stakeholders, which specify the guidelines and rules by which the employees of Euro-Trade are required to abide, to comply with the general principles and to prevent the risk of unethical behavior;
- ✓ the implementation mechanisms, which describe the control system for the compliance with the Code and for its continuous improvement.

In order to make this Code knowable and enforceable by all employees, associates and third parties, it will be published on the Company website (<http://www.euro-trade.it>); the Code will also be given to all new employees and co-workers from the early stage of selection and in any case distributed to all those who have relationships with the Company.

INDICE

I. Preliminary Provisions

- 1.1 Introduction
- 1.2 Definitions
- 1.3 Scope of application and effectiveness of the Code
- 1.4 Effectiveness of the Code with respect to Employees, Associates, Managers and Corporate Representatives
- 1.5 Effectiveness of the Code with respect to third parties

II. General principles

- 2.1 Legality
- 2.2 Morality
- 2.3 Dignity and equality
- 2.4 Professionalism

III. External Relations

- 3.1 Gifts, benefits or other utilities
- 3.2 Relations with suppliers
- 3.3 Relations with governments and public institutions
- 3.4 Relations with political organizations and trade unions
- 3.5 Relations with the media
- 3.6 Competition
- 3.7 Fighting Corruption

IV. Human Resources

- 4.1 Selection, assessment and professional training
- 4.2 Equal opportunities
- 4.3 Work Environment
- 4.4 Other activities
- 4.5 Use of equipment and corporate facilities
- 4.6 Alcohol and other intoxicating substances; smoking

V. Conflict of interests

VI. Accounting and Internal Controls

- 6.1 Accounting Records
- 6.2 Internal controls
- 6.3 Information reporting

VII. Corporate policies

- 7.1 Environmental protection
- 7.2 Protection of health and safety in the workplace
- 7.3 Intellectual property and new product development
- 7.4 Copyright

7.5 Corporate Social Responsibility

VIII. Information and confidentiality

8.1 Information related to Euro-Trade

8.2 Protection of Personal Data

IX. Implementing provisions

9.1 In general

9.2 The Surveillance Body pursuant to art. 6 of Legislative Decree no. N. 231/2001

9.3 Clarifications, complaints and reports

I. PRELIMINARY PROVISIONS

1.1 Introduction

Euro-Trade buy and sells scrap metals intended for use in the steel industry and currently has commercial relationship as a supplier with only Acciaieria Arvedi S.p.A.

The Company recognizes the importance of stating the guiding principles for its activities.

1.2 Definitions

In this Code, the following expressions shall have the meanings indicated below:

- "Code" means this Code and any attachments, as from time to time supplemented or amended;
- "Collaborators" means those who have economic or financial relationships with the Company or any other relations of coordinated and continuous collaboration or project collaboration, mostly private and without subordination relationship (such as, but not limited to: project work, temporary work, apprenticeship, etc.), or any other employment relationship provided for in Article 409 of the Code of Civil Procedure, suppliers of casual work, as well as any other person under the direction or supervision of any subject in apical positions of Euro-Trade according to the decree of 8 June 2001, n. 231;
- "Recipients" the subjects to whom the provisions of this Code are applied and, in particular, Employees, Officers, Collaborators and the Company Representatives;
- "Employees" the subjects who have a contract of employment/subordination with the Company, including part-time and fixed-term employees;
- "Corporate Representatives" the Sole Administrator, Board of Statutory Auditors, the executive committee (if any), the General Managers (if any) as well as the members of other Corporate bodies of Euro-Trade as from time to time in office, that may be established pursuant to art. 2380 Civil Code or special laws, as well as any other person in apical positions, by which is meant any person who has functions of representation, administration or management of Euro-Trade or one of its organizational units having financial and functional autonomy, according to the decree of 8 June 2001, n. 231;
- "Surveillance Body" the surveillance body with independent powers of initiative and control in accordance with the Decree of 8 June 2001, n. 231;
the body appointed to ensure the implementation of the principles contained the Code of Ethics (hereinafter "the Guarantor");

1.3 Scope of application and effectiveness of the Code

The provisions of this Code shall apply to the Recipients except as otherwise stated in the Code withstanding the application of the mandatory rules of law and contracts (including national, local and corporate collective bargaining agreements,) from time to time applicable to their relations with Euro-Trade.

This Code shall also apply to third parties with which Euro-Trade deals, in accordance with the law or the agreements made with them and within the limits established by the Code itself.

1.4 Effectiveness of the Code with respect to Employees, Associates, Managers and Corporate Representatives

The observance of this Code is an integral part of the contractual obligations of the Employees, pursuant to art. 2104 of the Civil Code.

The violation of this Code by the Recipients may constitute a breach of contract and / or a disciplinary offense and, if applicable, may result in compensation for any damage caused to the Company by such violation, in accordance with current legislation and collective agreements as from time to time applicable in each case.

Recipients are required to comply with the provisions of this Code both in relations among them (internal relations), and in dealings with third parties (external relations). In particular:

- i. Company Representatives, as part of their duties of administration and control, adopt the principles of this Code;
- ii. Employees and Collaborators conform their conduct to the principles laid down in this Code and the instructions received from their own Supervisors.

Without prejudice to the functions assigned to the Guarantor towards the Employees, Collaborators and Corporate Representatives, the fulfillment by each Supervisor of its duties and the obligations related to them is made in accordance with the provisions of this Code, as well as the subsequent recommendations or instructions of the Surveillance Body itself, and with the implementing and monitoring procedures adopted by the Company from time to time.

To the extent required, the Company promotes the knowledge and application of this Code to the Recipients also by reference to specific clauses in their contracts that require them to comply with the provisions of this Code.

The Guarantor supervises the implementation of the foregoing.

The Company also works to ensure that the recruitment of future Employees, Associates and Corporate Representatives is conducted in order to assess, among other things, the adequacy of the candidates' personal and professional qualities with the provisions of this Code.

1.5 Effectiveness of the Code with respect to third parties

The Recipient who, in the exercise of its functions, comes into contact with third parties, shall:

- i. inform, to the extent necessary, the third party of the obligations set out in the Code;
- ii. require the compliance with the obligations arising from this Code that relate directly to the activities of the same;
- iii. in the case of an Employee or Collaborator, report to his/her supervisor and, in the case of a Supervisor or a Corporate Representative, report to the Guarantor any third party's conduct which is contrary to this Code or otherwise likely to cause the Recipients to commit violations of the Code.

Taking into account the legal, social, economic and cultural framework, Euro-Trade promotes the application of the general principles presented in this Code, by the third parties with whom the company deals, through the insertion in the organizational models and in the contracts between the third parties and the Company, of specific clauses laying down an obligation for such third party, to observe, in their own work and their organization, the provisions of this Code.

The Guarantor monitors the implementation of the foregoing.

II. GENERAL PRINCIPLES

2.1 Legality

The compliance with the law and with the provisions of its Statute, is a fundamental principle for Euro-Trade.

Within their function, the Recipients are required to comply with the rules of the legal system (national, supranational or foreign) in which they operate and must in any case refrain from committing violations of the laws, whether associated or not with prison sentences, fines or penalties of other nature.

To this end, each Recipient agrees to diligently acquire the necessary knowledge of the law applicable to the conduct of their duties, as from time to time in force.

Each Recipient also observes, in addition to the general principles of diligence and loyalty (see art. 2104 of the Civil Code), the requirements of conduct contained in individual or collective contracts applicable to him.

2.2 Morality

The quality and efficiency of the organization as well as the reputation of the Company constitute a priceless legacy and are determined, to a substantial extent, by the conduct of each Recipient. Each Recipient is therefore required with his/her conduct, to contribute to the preservation of this legacy, and in particular, of the reputation of the Company, both in the workplace and outside.

During the course of his duties, each Recipient, taking into account the different social, economic, political and cultural backgrounds, shall lead a conduct inspired by moral integrity, and, in particular, by the following values:

- i. honesty, fairness and good faith, taking on the responsibilities associated with his role;
- ii. transparency, promptly dealing with the information in his possession and carrying out processes of communication and information inspired by clarity, completeness, accuracy and sharing.

2.3 Dignity and equality

Each Recipient acknowledges and respects the personal dignity, privacy and personal rights of any individual.

Each Recipient works with women and men of different nationalities, cultures, religions and races. Euro-Trade does not tolerate discrimination, harassment or sexual offenses, personal or otherwise.

2.4 Professionalism

Each Recipient carries out its activities with the professionalism required by the nature of the tasks and functions performed, using the maximum effort in achieving the objectives assigned to him and diligently carrying out the necessary upgrading activities.

III. EXTERNAL RELATIONS

3.1 Gifts, benefits or other utilities

Recipients, in the exercise of their duties, are forbidden to offer or give to a third party as well as to accept or receive from third parties, directly or indirectly, even on occasions of festivities, gifts, benefits or other valuables (including in the form of money, goods or services of various kinds) that might influence or appear to influence business decisions in favor of any person with whom the Company has commercial relations.

Are eligible donations of moderate value aimed at supporting non-profit associations or interest for the local communities that pursue objectives consistent with the values of the Company.

The Recipient that receives donations or offers of donations that do not comply with the above shall immediately inform, in writing, his Supervisor in the case of employee or collaborator, or, in the case of a Supervisor or Company Representative, the Surveillance Body for the adoption of appropriate measures.

Recipient are however forbidden to solicit the offer or grant, or the acceptance or receipt of donations of any kind, including those of negligible amount.

Any Recipient who, in the exercise of his duties, enters into contracts with third parties must ensure that such contracts do not provide for or involve donations in violation of this Code.

3.2 Relations with suppliers

Euro-Trade agrees to include, in the agreements made with suppliers, contractual clauses that bind them to the respect of the fundamental principles and, taking into account of their legal, social, economic and cultural system, to compliance with the provisions of this Code.

The Company pursues fair and impartial selection of its suppliers.

Recipients shall comply with the procedures for the selection and hiring of suppliers established by corporate guidelines, as well as public tenders applicable under current law.

With the exclusion of the appointments characterized by the intuitu personae, to be assessed on a case by case basis, in relations to contracts, procurements or supply of goods or services to Euro-Trade Recipients, in the exercise of their duties, must observe the following rules:

- i. each employee or collaborator must notify their Supervisor and each Supervisor or Company Representative shall inform the Guarantor, any personal interest, direct or indirect, personal or of other people, which could lead to the appearance of a conflict of interest with suppliers;
- ii. in the case of competing offers, suppliers shall not be favored or hindered and they must, in any case, be compared in a fair and even manner, by adopting objective and transparent evaluation and selection criteria. Consequently, Recipients must not preclude to the candidate suppliers, who meet the qualifications required, the chance to win the tender in question;

- iii. it is permitted to accept invitations from counterparts only if the reason and scope of the invitations are adequate and a refusal would contravene the duty of courtesy.

It is forbidden to Euro-Trade in scrap trading activities to falsify the origin of the material used or modify any third party brand on materials/products used.

3.3 Relations with governments and public institutions

Relations with public institutions are kept by the authorized Company Representatives or by the delegated persons, in accordance with the provisions of this Code and the Bylaws of the Company and of the laws, even special, with particular regard to the principles of transparency and efficiency.

In the relationships that the Recipients of the Code, even through third parties, entertain with the Public Administration, must be observed the following principles:

- it is always required to operate within the law and sound business practice whereas it is expressly prohibited from engaging in behaviors that, in order to benefit the Company, may constitute a crime;
- employees and co-workers must not attempt improperly influence the decisions or encourage people to commit acts contrary to official duties, even if put in place for the benefit or on behalf of the Company, the executives, officers (including officials acting or making decisions on behalf of the Public Administration) or public employees or their relatives and civil partners during any business negotiation, request or relationship with the Public Administration,.

By way of example, and without limitation, the recipients of the Code shall not, directly or indirectly:

- consider or offer employment opportunities and / or business opportunities that can benefit government employees on a personal basis;
- offering or in any way provide money, gifts or giveaways;
- exert undue pressure or promise any object, service or performance;
- submit false statements national public bodies or community in order to obtain public funding, grants or subsidized loans or to obtain concessions, permits, licenses or other administrative acts;
- alter the functioning of an IT system or manipulate the data contained therein in order to obtain an unfair advantage by defrauding the Public Administration;
- allocate amounts received from public bodies by way of grants, subsidies or loans for purposes other than those for which they were assigned;
- solicit or obtain confidential information that could compromise the integrity or reputation of both parties.

3.4 Relations with political organizations and trade unions

Relations with political organizations and trade unions are kept by the authorized Company Representatives or by the persons by them delegated, in accordance with the provisions of this Code and the Bylaws of the Company and of the laws, even special, having particular regard to the principles of impartiality and independence, both nationally and internationally.

3.5 Relations with the media

Only the authorized Company Representatives or people delegated by them held relations with press, television and mass media, both domestic and foreign.

All external communication must be authorized in advance in accordance with Company procedures in force.

3.6 Competition

Each Recipient is required to abide by the rules of fair competition and antitrust.

The Article 81 of the EC Treaty states that “The following shall be prohibited as incompatible with the common market: all agreements between undertakings, decisions by associations of undertakings and concerted practices which may affect trade between Member States and which have as their object or effect the prevention, restriction or distortion of competition within the common market [...]”.

In addition, in the event that the abuse or concerted practices affect free competition within the Italian state, the agreement is also punishable according to Article 2 of the Italian Antitrust law.

In order not to infringe the law relating to the protection of competition, Euro-Trade operates exclusively according to its commercial and strategic choices, defining its policy autonomously and independently from the competitors.

In particular, the following practices are forbidden:

- i. to establish relationships with competitors of Euro-Trade to reach agreements on the purchase or sale prices, quantities or other trading conditions;
- ii. to make agreements or even verbal undertaking of non-competition with competitors of Euro-Trade;
- iii. preventing or limiting production, outlets or access to the market, investment, technical development or technological progress
- iv. to arrange the participation in tenders or the allocation of markets or sources of supply (including with regard to customers, geographical areas or production schedules);
- v. to apply in trade relations with other trading partners, objectively dissimilar conditions to equivalent transactions, thereby placing them at an unjustifiable competitive disadvantage;
- vi. to make the conclusion of contracts subject to the acceptance by the other parties of supplementary obligations which, by their nature or according to commercial usage, have no connection with the subject of such contracts.

In order to prevent a breach of that legislation, Employees and Collaborators have a duty to report to their Supervisor, and the Supervisors and Company Representatives have an obligation to report to the Surveillance Body, those behaviors contrary to the prohibitions listed above.

The sale of the products and services of the Company must be made solely on the basis of their merits and the advantages they offer. This Code does not allow you to falsely denigrate the competition or its products and services.

The Company recognizes that competition is an essential element for the economic and social development and progress of the country. To this end, in the conduct of its business, Euro-Trade shall ensure to comply with the general conditions for the freedom of enterprise, allowing economic operators to enter the market and compete with equal opportunities, and protect their clients, helping to contain prices and improvements in the quality of services that result from the free play of competition.

The Company does not deny, hide or delay any information requested by the Antitrust Authority and the regulatory bodies in their inspection and actively collaborates in the course of investigative procedures.

3.7 Fighting corruption

In keeping with the values of honesty and transparency, the Company undertakes to put in place all necessary measures to prevent and avoid corruption.

It is not allowed to pay or accept any sums of money or other forms of corruption in order to obtain direct or indirect benefits to the Company itself.

IV. HUMAN RESOURCES

4.1 Selection, assessment and professional training

Human resources are a central element on which the Company bases the pursuit of its objectives.

In the selection and management of staff, the Company adopts the criteria of merit, competence and capability and individual potential assessment.

Euro-Trade values and aims to develop the skills and capacity of each Recipient, through the organization of training and retraining activities. Each Recipient carries out these activities diligently and shall report any needs for additional or specific activities in order to allow for the adoption of the necessary initiatives by the Company.

4.2 Equal opportunities

Company's objective is to create a work environment free from racial, cultural, ideological, sexual, physical, moral, religious or other nature of discrimination and to offer equal opportunities to the Recipients on equal terms.

All recipients are required to work together to achieve that goal.

4.3 Work Environment

The Recipients shall cooperate with each other in achieving common results and are committed to create a happy, challenging and rewarding work environment.

Within the work environment, the Recipients shall maintain a conduct based on a sense of responsibility, order and decorum.

The Company requires that in internal work relationships incidents of harassment or intolerance shall not occur.

4.4 Other activities

Recipients are allowed to conduct other activities to the extent that these activities do not affect the performance by the said parties of their work activities in Euro-Trade.

Recipients must however refrain from carrying out activities (also unpaid) that would put them in contrast with specific obligations they have undertaken against Euro-Trade.

4.5 Use of equipment and corporate facilities

The Company assets are only used for official corporate purposes, in accordance with current legislation.

In no case it is allowed to use corporate assets and, in particular, IT and network facilities for purposes contrary to mandatory provisions of law, public order or morality, as well as to commit or cause the commission of crimes or racial hatred, glorification of violence and violation of human rights.

No Recipient is allowed to record or play back audio-visual, electronic, photographic, or printed business document, except in cases where such activities fall within the normal performance of the duties assigned to them.

4.6 Alcohol and other intoxicating substances; smoking

The use of drugs and the abuse of alcohol in the workplace is strictly forbidden.

Without prejudice to the provisions of the law on smoking in the workplace, the Company shall take particular account of the needs of those who ask to be preserved from contact with the "passive smoking" in their workplace.

V. CONFLICT OF INTERESTS

Recipients, in the performance of their duties, shall avoid situations of conflicts of interest.

For example, conflicts of interest can be determined by the following situations:

- i. hiring of corporate position or performing work activities of any kind for customers or suppliers;
- ii. the assumption of economic and financial interests of the Recipient or his/her family in the suppliers' or customers' businesses (such as, for example, equity participation, direct or indirect, in the share capital of businesses).

Every situation potentially suitable to generate a conflict of interest, or otherwise impair the ability of the Recipient to make decisions in the best interest of the Company, must be immediately reported by the Employee or by the Collaborator to his Supervisor or by the Supervisor or Company Representative to the Surveillance Body and it determines, for the Recipient in question, the obligation to refrain from acts connected with or relating to this situation.

What stated above, is to be intended without prejudice to the rules on conflicts of interest of members of administrative and control bodies in accordance with the law.

VI. ACCOUNTING AND INTERNAL CONTROLS

6.1 Accounting Records

Accounting transparency and the maintenance of accounting records in accordance with the principles of truthfulness, completeness, clarity, precision, accuracy and compliance with applicable law is the basic prerequisite for an efficient control.

For each operation adequate supporting documentation must be kept in acts, such as to allow easy amount adjustment, the reconstruction of the transaction and the identification of any responsibility.

Each Recipient is required to assist for the proper and timely accounting entry of all transactions.

The submission of adequate supporting documentation is also required to Recipients for the compilation of expense reports, for which a reimbursement is being requested.

6.2 Internal controls

The functionality and efficiency of a complex structure requires the correct operation of this structure at all levels; in order to ensure such operation, a system of internal controls is provided, oriented to verify and guide the organization of Euro-Trade.

Each Recipient, within the limits of the functions and duties assigned to him, is responsible for the definition and proper operation of the control system.

6.3 Information reporting

The circulation of information must be managed according to the criteria of truth, accuracy and timeliness. To this end, the reports, for both internal (colleagues, employees, shareholders) and external relations (customers, suppliers, institutional stakeholders) must be prepared scrupulously and in accordance with these principles.

Euro-Trade, moreover, fulfills its legal obligations, including those in the field of communications towards the competent authorities, with particular reference to the surveillance and control authority, and cooperates with law enforcement authorities in carrying out their duties in accordance with local regulations.

VII. CORPORATE POLICIES

7.1 Environmental protection

In the business Activities, the Company takes full accords of environmental protection. In this light the Company and all employees act in accordance with the laws and regulations in force.

Each Recipient, in carrying out its functions and activities, should contribute to Environment protection, in compliance with the lows and regulation in force and adopting responsible behavior.

7.2 Protection of health and safety in the workplace

The Company promote health and safety in the workplace for its employees and commits itself to compliance with current legislation in the field .

The liability of each Recipient towards his employees and colleagues mandates the utmost care to prevent the risk of injury.

To this end, the Company organizes activities tailoring work to man in terms of job design, equipment selection and working methods, in order to reduce the effects on health. It also undertakes to take into account the degree of evolution of the technique and to provide appropriate instructions to the workers in order to make them aware of the risks arising from their work.

Each Recipient must be extremely careful in carrying out its activities, closely observing all safety and prevention measures established, to avoid any possible risk to themselves and to his co-workers and colleagues.

7.3 Intellectual property and new product development

The protection of the Company's intellectual property, including patents, trade secrets, trademarks, logos, technical and scientific knowledge, know-how and skills acquired in the course of business activities, is essential to preserve the Company's competitive advantage.

Employees are required to define, protect, maintain and defend the rights of the Company in all areas of intellectual property and to exercise those rights in responsible ways.

In addition to protecting the intellectual property rights of the Company, even the intellectual property rights of others must be respected.

7.4 Copyright

Many materials used by directors, officers, employees and representatives in the course of work are protected by the laws on copyright. The reproduction, modification or distribution of copyrighted materials without the consent of the copyright holder is illegal and prohibited under this Code. The unauthorized duplication of copyrighted materials may lead to violations punishable by civil and / or criminal penalties. Although copyright infringement usually involves the unauthorized copying of publications or other printed material, it may also embrace the unauthorized use of photographs and graphics displays or design. Typically the computer software programs are protected by copyright and are sold subject to license agreements that may limit their use.

No director, officer, employee or representative may copy software or use it on different computers, unless the license agreements cover it or in the presence of applicable legal exemption.

7.5 Corporate Social Responsibility

Corporate social responsibility of companies operating both in Italy and abroad is a recognized and shared value within Euro-Trade.

The Company conducts its business in compliance with the social and moral obligations and aims to contribute, with the same, to the enhancement of wealth and intellectual and social asset of each country and community in which it operates.

VIII. INFORMATION AND CONFIDENTIALITY

8.1 Information related to Euro-Trade

No confidential information related to Euro-Trade acquired or developed by the Recipient in the performance or on the occasion of his business relations with the Company may be used, disclosed or distributed to third parties for other purposes than institutional. The notion of confidential information includes all data, knowledge, deeds, documents, reports, notes, studies, drawings, photographs and any other material relevant to the organization and to business assets, to the methods of production, to the commercial and financial transactions, to research and developments as well as to judicial and administrative proceedings relating to the Company.

The obligation of confidentiality shall remain in force even after termination of employment with the Company, in accordance with local regulations.

Any confidential information should be stored in a place inaccessible to unauthorized persons.

8.2 Protection of Personal Data

In carrying out its activities, the Company processes the personal data of Recipients and third parties.

The Company requires that Recipients should commit, as part of their duties, so that the data being processed are treated in accordance with the rules in force from time to time.

To this end, the processing of personal data is permitted only to authorized personnel and in compliance with the rules and procedures of Euro-Trade which are established in accordance with local regulations.

IX. IMPLEMENTING PROVISIONS

9.1 In general

In order to achieve compliance with the principles set out in this Code, Euro-Trade ensures:

- (i) the maximum diffusion and awareness of this Code;
- (ii) the interpretation and uniform implementation of this Code;
- (iii) the execution of assessments about reports of violations of this Code and the application of sanctions in case of violation of the same in accordance with local regulations;
- (iv) the prevention and repression of any form of retaliation against those who contribute to the implementation of this Code;
- (v) the periodic updating of this Code, on the basis of needs that occur from time to time in the light of the above activities.

Without prejudice to the powers conferred to the corporate bodies in accordance with law and the Surveillance Body, all employees are required to implement and contribute to the implementation of the Code, within the limits of their powers and functions.

9.2 The Surveillance Body pursuant to art. 6 of Legislative Decree no. N. 231/2001

All stakeholders of the Company may report, in writing through the appropriate confidential channels, any violation or suspected violation of the Code of Ethics to the Surveillance Body of the Company, which will analyze the report and possibly hear the perpetrator and the person responsible for the alleged violation.

The Surveillance Body has in fact, among others, the following duties:

- regularly check the implementation and enforcement of the Code;
- check the contents of the Code, in order to signal the need for adaptation to the evolution of the laws;
- undertake any activities for the dissemination of the Code other than those envisaged in this document;
- propose to the Sole Administrator changes and integrations to the Code;
- receive reports of violations of the Code and conduct the required investigations;
- ensure and assist those who report behaviors that do not comply with the Code, protecting them from pressure, interference, intimidation and retaliation;
- annually prepare a report on the activities carried out to submit to the Sole Administrative.

The Code revision is approved by the Sole Administrator after consulting with Board of Statutory auditors. The proposal is made taking into account the evaluation of the stakeholders with reference to the principles and contents of the Code, promoting the active contribution and reporting any shortcomings.

9.3 Clarifications, complaints and reports

All employees and collaborators of the Company are required to cooperate with the Surveillance Body, also providing corporate documentation necessary to carry out the pertaining activities.

In case of doubt on the legitimacy of a particular conduct, on its ethical disvalue or on its non-conformity with the Code, the Recipient can contact his supervisor and / or the Surveillance Body. The reporting of any wrongdoing by the Recipient has to be done in writing and sent, in addition to his Supervisor, to the Surveillance Body, by transmission of the communication by electronic mail (Odv231@euro-trade.it) or internal mail.